

Provide a feature in PI Vision feature to collapse attribute list display by category on left panel

Originally posted on UserVoice

Provide a feature in PI Vision to allow collapsing category to hide attributes within that category on left panel.

Some attribute lists are quite long and Category only provides a "heading" for grouping those attributes.

Allowing attribute list collapse by Category, and an option to default that functionality, would eliminate the option of using Attribute Parent | Attribute Child option, which is confusing.