

PI Manual Logger should support picture uploading together with data entry.

Originally posted on UserVoice

PI Manual Logger should support picture uploading such that when the user found something physically abnormal during the tour run, they can quickly take photo and save it for later reference.

PI Vision's comment does accept picture uploading, so it should be possible for PI Manual Logger too.