

Support HTTP Token Authentication to a REST Endpoint

Originally posted on UserVoice

The REST endpoint from which I want to pull data requires token authentication. I would like the UFL Connector to be able to obtain the token given the username and password I enter on the Admin page.